Fr Thomas Merton OCSO: Contemplative Artist

A Quiet Day of Reflection led by Esther de Waal

2015 is the year in which we commemorate the centenary of the birth of Thomas Merton, Fr Louis, who was born on January 31st 1915 in the south of France and who died in Thailand on December 10th 1968.

Trappist monk & American citizen; artist & poet; writer & critic; radical activist & contemplative.

This day will introduce us to a man who continues to illuminate and to challenge us all and will include a video of his use of the camera as a way to see the world and as a means for prayer.

Coffee from 10am, commence 10:30, lunch included.

Cost £20

Supported by the Montgomery Trust
